Arc Honors Award Winners and Puts Thrift Accessories On the Catwalk at Annual Meeting May 19

Radio Host Kevyn Burger to Emcee Program

ST. PAUL – Arc Greater Twin Cities will celebrate the successes of 2008, honor outstanding achievements and showcase the delights of thrift shopping at its Annual Meeting and Awards Celebration. Kevyn Burger, host of the Kevyn Burger Show on FM 107.1, will emcee the event, which will begin at 6:15 p.m. on Tuesday, May 19, at the auditorium of the Amherst H. Wilder Foundation, 451 Lexington Parkway N., St. Paul.

A highlight of the program will be the presentation of Arc's Change Maker Awards for 2008 to 10 individuals and organizations who are making a difference for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families. The evening's festivities will also include an accessory style show where fashion experts will demonstrate ways to freshen your style with wardrobe accents from Arc's Value Village Thrift Stores & Donation Centers.

The cost of the event is $10 for Arc members and $15 for non-members. Please RSVP by May 8 by calling Arc at (952) 920-0855 or visiting www.arcgreatertwincities.org.

Arc Greater Twin Cities is a nonprofit agency serving the many needs of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families. Established in 1946, Arc has been changing attitudes, changing policies and changing lives for more than 60 years. Arc helps individuals and families address issues that span the lifetime, including early intervention, education, transition to adulthood, health care, housing, employment, guardianship and more.
